

QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT AND SAFETY POLICY

The top priority targets of SO.G.I.S. Industria Chimica SpA are Customer Satisfaction, the protection of territory and environment and the health and safety of employees.

The Company management commit themselves to:

- Comply with Laws and Regulations about environment and safety
- Encourage and spread the culture of customer satisfaction, territory and environment protection, prevention from pollution, safety of employees
- Involve, motivate, make people aware and give value to them through an all levels training
- Promote the continuous improvement of processes, services and products, to obtain effectiveness and efficiency
- Use low environmental impact technologies and processes, respecting the territory, the safety and the health of people.

In order to implement these targets, the Company has adopted a Quality and an Environment System according to UNI EN ISO 9001: 2000 and UNI EN ISO 14001: 1996, involving all the SO.G.I.S. personnel in its enforcement and its continuous improvement.

The policy for Quality, Environment and Safety integrates with the other Company strategies aimed at improving productivity, profitability, reliability and image.

The Directors define yearly the improvements goals on which measuring and estimating the value and the effectiveness of its own Quality, Environment and Safety System and offers adequate tools and facilities to realize them.

The Management